Projectoffice for innovative social policy is a Non-Profit Organisation (NPO) established as Association based in Graz, Austria, which wants to contribute to fighting social disadvantages and unemployment and to the increase of equal opportunities, transparency and efficiency in relevant systems by innovative projects in the social sector.

The focus of our association is the conception and implementation of research and pilot projects as well as in the development of adequate measures with (social) political background.

The thematic field stretches from employment politics and development of labour relations over equal opportunities and gender fairness to targeted interventions for disadvantaged groups.

Emphasis is recently also put on encouragement actions and innovative projects for adolescents, with a special focus on young women.

International (EU) projects make up a special focus; Special emphasis is given to innovative forms of Information Technology (IT) for special applications in the social sector. Besides the project tasks we offer counselling and information services.
