How to Make Good Parents? INTRODUCTORY MEETING

Dear guests,

Welcome to Yozgat. Let me give you some information about this lovely small city.

Yozgat boasts a rich and varied culture. It is home to a beautiful nature, local specialties and historical edifices dating from the Hittites to the Ottomans. Situated in the heart of Anatolia, it has a range of cultural wealth, including mouth-watering cuisine, original folk songs that pull on the hearth of strings, and the promise of interesting journeys full of history.

Yozgat is a small city in the Central Anatolia Region, covering an area of 14,037 km², at an altitude of 1300 m above sea-level. It has a continental climate. July and August are the hottest months. The region's lands were home to many civilisations such as the Hittites, the Phrygian State, Cimmerian State, the Persians, Alexander the Great, the Roman and the Byzantine Empires, Anatolian Seljuk State, and the Ottoman Empire.

No need to tell you more!!! As you will have enough time to get more information about this lovely city while walking in its streets and enjoying the great atmosphere.

Çamlık is the first national park of Turkey. It is approximately 5 km away from the city centre on the hills that stretch to the South. Having a look from Çamlık over the city is breath-taking. Convenient places for camping and over-nighting can be found in.

2. YOZGAT ETHNOGRAPHICAL MUSEUM & HAYRİ İNAL MANSION

This museum was once used as a mansion which belonged to Nizamoğlu family. It has wooden floors and walls. Opened to visitors as a museum in 1871, the mansion today houses a large amount of ethnographical artifacts and varied examples of carpentry and paintings. The paintings on display in the museum include figures and events that are sacred to different religions; therefore, the mansion has been made into an attractive centre.

3. ÇAPANOĞLU MOSQUE

The mosque, which was built in the year 1779 by Çapanoğlu Mustafa Bey, was enlarged by his brother Süleyman Bey in 1794-1795. It has two parts named as inner mosque and outer mosque. The inner part is made up of white cut stones while the outer part is of Brown and burgundy cut Stones. The colourful motifs decorating the domes increase the visual and artistic quality of the mosque.

4. YOZGAT CLOCK TOWER

The Clock Tower in the centre of Yozgat was constructed in a square prism-like shape in 1897. It is divided into six levels by string courses. Topped by a cone like belfry, its upper side is surrounded by a balcony. It weighs about 250 kg and chimes every half hour.

5. KERKENES RUINS

The ruins of Kerkenes, where excavations and surface explorations are ongoing, are found within the village of Şahmuratlı in the district of Sorgun enclosed in a 7km long rampart wall with seven entrances. It is believed that the castle in this settlement belongs to Hittites period.

6. HAMAM (SPA CENTRES)

Yozgat is a fascinating city which is famous for its springs, Turkish baths and spa centres.
